SCC Honors Program
Honors Contract

Student must submit the signed original Honors Contract to Cheryl Contino-Conner (the Honors Program Advisor) for Honors Program Committee Approval no later than the 10th day of the semester in which the Honors Contract is effective.

The Honors Contract must be approved for the student to receive Honors Credit. The Honors Contract is a collaborative effort between the student and faculty which provides an opportunity for the student to enrich the quality of his/her education beyond what is normally expected in the curriculum course; while simultaneously providing the faculty member an opportunity for scholarly/innovative endeavors as well as professionally interesting projects. Proposed Contracts must be relevant to the subject of the course.

What makes a course an Honors Course?
Research beyond normal course assignments.
Critical Thinking and extended analysis that exceeds normal course expectations.
Creative projects beyond regular requirements of the course.
