

Faculty Resource Guide

The SDS Faculty Resource Guide provides information that specifically addresses SCC faculty needs and questions related to teaching students with disabilities. The guide will be regularly updated to stay current with changes in disability laws, assistive technology, or other supports related to serving students with disabilities in higher education.

Click here to access the faculty resource guide.

View PDF