SLA officers continued to work regularly with their advisors and Dean of Student Svcs.				SLA officers were not able to conduct monthly meetings with the Executive Council or college President, but did meet about once a quarter with Dean of Student Svcs.	student services.

SLA put on 4 successful events and about ½ of the clubs did campus wide events.	Clubs were successfully paid in 2 installments and were given money for their events.
Some clubs were successful working within the community.	Would prefer to see more participation in the community from the clubs and organizations.
Several students pursued professional development through interviewing exercises, lecture, and networking.	SLA would like to launch more educational and professional workshops and lectures for the student body.
