NEWS RELEASE - JULY 9, 2004

Burrell Reappointed to SCC Board of Trustees

SYLVA - Conrad Burrell, retired registrar of deeds for Jackson County, was recently reappointed to the SCC Board of Trustees by Governor Michael Easley.

Burrell has served on SCC's Board for the past eight years, four of those as chairman, including his current term. He and his wife, Juanita, reside in Sylva.

"I am elated to hear Conrad was reappointed to our Board," said Cecil Groves, SCC's president. "Conrad brings to the Board a level of leadership and knowledge of the community that is invaluable, and I look forward to continuing our working relationship."

In addition to serving on the SCC Board of Trustees, Burrell also serves on the NCDOT Board of Transportation.

Southwestern Community College is governed by a local Board of Trustees within the framework of the Community Colleges Act, Chapter 115D of the General Statutes of North Carolina. The Board consists of 14 trustees - five appointed by the county commissioners, four appointed by the Board of Education, four appointed by the Governor of North Carolina and the Student Leadership Association president as an ex-officio member.
