

Final Exam Topic

As we continue moving into the 21st century, American citizens will be faced with an assortment of serious environmental, physical, social, and technological problems. Identify one of these problems that concern you and analyze it in essay form. Discuss its causes, effects, and future implications. Be as specific as possible, providing a clear thesis and ample support through details and examples. Remember to use the proper essay format with introductory, supporting, and concluding paragraphs.