The Arts and Sciences Division of Southwestern Community College seeks to cultivate a positive academic environment which creates in our students a genuine interest in becoming active learners and productive citizens. Students should emerge with an enhanced confidence of their skills and knowledge in composition, humanities, mathematics, natural science, social science, and wellness.