

Southwestern Community College

Safety and Emergency Response Acknowledgment

As an employee of Southwestern Community College, I understand that I have the right to know about hazards in the college workplace. I will be accountable for conducting my duties in the workplace in accordance with the information and guidelines contained in the Southwestern Community College Safety Programs found online at this link:

My signature below acknowledges that I will be responsible for reviewing and understanding Southwestern Community College's Safety Programs. A Review and understanding of the programs means the following:

I am responsible for reading, understanding, and adhering to statements of Southwestern Community College's Safety Programs and I will ask the appropriate faculty, staff, or administration any questions I may have.

I am aware that the college may, through whatever internal processes are designated, change the guidelines, policies and procedures contained in these programs, at any time and the college will periodically update the programs on the website from time to time.
