Message from Cheryl

As we begin spring semester 2013, I would like you to take a few minutes to think about the commitments you have made to your education. School is like work, and a great way to measure your academic commitment is to ask yourself, "Would I pay myself for the academic 'work' I produce?"

Consider the similarities between school and work: in both settings you are expected to be present and on time; to engage in some type of activity AND produce positive outcomes; and you will be evaluated, whether it be an employee assessment or an academic test, quiz or paper.

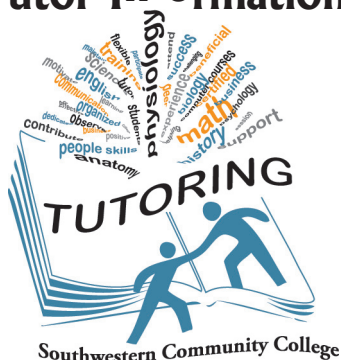

As the semester begins, take time to re-evaluate your educational commitments. Corporate America is quick to note that your class performance is a great indicator of the type of employee you will be. In every class, you are building your academic resume ...let's make this semester count!

As always, we are here for you!
Cheryl

FREE Tutoring!

Requesting a tutor is simple and tutorial sessions are free! Be a proactive student and seek help when needed.

FIRST day to request a tutor: Tuesday, January 22

SCC's new option for online tutoring is Thinkingstorm (TS). TS is available to all students through Blackboard. Log in to "MySCC" and click on the Blackboard icon. Thinkingstorm is the last tab on the top right of the page.

Contact Toni Knott, LAC Coordinator,
(tknott@southwesterncc.edu) with any questions.

If you are having problems logging in,
try using a browser other than Internet Explorer.

Do You Have What It Takes to Be a Tutor?

If you have a strong expertise in an academic subject area (grade A or B) and would like to assist fellow students, see Laurie about becoming part of the SCC CRLA certified Tutor Program.

REMEMBER! The Learning Assistance Center (LAC) on the 2nd floor of Oaks is an excellent resource for help in many subject areas. Check the LAC schedule posted around campus or online.
