

College News

Health & Wellness Fair scheduled for Oct. 10

09-09-2025

Annual event is scheduled for 9 a.m.-noon on our Jackson Campus.

New Outdoor Leadership classes available this fall

08-26-2025

Everything from Primitive Living Skills to Knot-Tying are being offered through our Workforce Continuing Education division.

Scholarship funding surge fuels career dreams for 10 Automotive Students

08-25-2025

The single-largest scholarship distribution for students in one academic program in our history, the Daniel May Automotive Systems Technology Scholarship Fund is providing $10,000 to each of 10 incoming automotive students at Southwestern this fall.

Newly renamed 'Social & Human Services' program expands

07-28-2025

Starting this fall, we will offer education and training for three distinct career pathways within the field: Mental Health, Addiction & Recovery and Social Services.

SCC Foundation sets date for 11th fundraising gala

07-28-2025

The 11th annual Boots, Blue Jeans & Bling is set for the evening of Sept. 27 in the Events Center at Harrah's.

Emergency Medical Science student who helped save life is honored

07-23-2025

On May 4, several emergency personnel were called to assist a man who had overdosed at a venue in Tennessee. Despite being out with friends, one individual who immediately jumped into action was Grayson Yount, an Emergency Medical Science student.

14 students complete tiny home, graduate from Facilities Maintenance Class

07-22-2025

The partnership between SCC and TERO allows enrolled members of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI) to learn a skill without paying tuition or materials costs.

Pagination

- Next page >>

View PDF