

College News

State Employee's Credit Union donates to SCC Workforce Con Ed

2025-10-08

The N.C. State Employees' Credit Union Foundation recently gave Southwestern Community College $18,000 to financially assist students who enroll in Workforce Continuing Education programs.

English Instructor Chris Cox publishes third book

2025-10-03

Cox held a reading for "We Didn't Miss A Thing" last month on our Jackson Campus.

New 'esports' club arrives with plans to compete intercollegiately

2025-09-19

Using Student Life funds, SCC is in the process of remodeling a gaming room and also acquiring the necessary equipment for esports.

Find the right Healthcare profession for you!

2025-09-17

Discover more about our Health Sciences programs during a series of upcoming info sessions.

New Outdoor Leadership classes available this fall

2025-08-26

Everything from Primitive Living Skills to Knot-Tying are being offered through our Workforce Continuing Education division.

Scholarship funding surge fuels career dreams for 10 Automotive Students

2025-08-25

The single-largest scholarship distribution for students in one academic program in our history, the Daniel May Automotive Systems Technology Scholarship Fund is providing $10,000 to each of 10 incoming automotive students at Southwestern this fall.

Newly renamed 'Social & Human Services' program expands

2025-07-28

Starting this fall, we will offer education and training for three distinct career pathways within the field: Mental Health, Addiction & Recovery and Social Services.

SCC Foundation sets date for 11th fundraising gala

2025-07-28

The 11th annual Boots, Blue Jeans & Bling is set for the evening of Sept. 27 in the Events Center at Harrah's.

Pagination

- Previous page <<
- Page 5
- Next page >>

View PDF