ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Arts Council of Macon County: <https://www.artscouncilofmacon.org/>

The Arts Council of Macon County is a non-profit organization. The Board and its members work year round to develop and present high quality, diverse, accessible arts programs to entertain, inform, and inspire us all. We serve the county with community concerts, Artists-in-the-Schools, and grants to other non-profits producing community arts programs.

Jackson Arts Council: <https://www.jacksoncountyarts.org/>

The Jackson County Arts Council was founded in 1976 to provide greater artistic exposure and opportunities for public school students. JCAC's original goal – to foster the arts in the public schools – remains a top priority. JCAC serves as a key cultural resource for Jackson County students, working closely with local administrators to provide students artistic programs and other cultural opportunities. Additionally, JCAC funds the Junior Appalachian Musician program, allowing students to learn and play music traditional to the mountain culture.

John William Pope Foundation: <https://jwpf.org/apply/joy-w-pope-memorial-grants/>

The Joy W. Pope Memorial Grant Funds provide an opportunity for organizations to develop innovative solutions that create a lasting impact in North Carolina. These grants support forward-thinking projects in arts and human services, though they are not intended for medical research. Eligible projects may introduce new initiatives, improve existing processes, enhance equipment or facilities, or expand services to reach new populations.

North Carolina Arts Council: <https://www.ncarts.org/grants-resources/grants>

The N.C. Arts Council's grants are one of the many ways we invest in sustaining and advancing our diverse and widespread network of arts organizations and artists. In fact, 80-percent of our funds flow directly to arts organizations and artists across North Carolina.

North Carolina Humanities: <https://nchumanities.org/grants/>

North Carolina Humanities is the leading cultural project funder in North Carolina. We distribute three types of cultural project grants to nonprofits that use the humanities to raise questions, encourage conversation, contextualize experiences, and connect people across differences in their local communities. This work creates meaningful opportunities for people to learn from experts and each other. We welcome diverse projects from across North Carolina that address different topics and use a variety of public humanities formats.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND ADVOCACY

Ask Every Student: <https://www.studentvoting.org/>

Ask Every Student is a national joint initiative that facilitates collaboration between campus leaders and nonprofit partners to help campuses ask every student to participate in the democratic process and achieve full student voter registration.

Laughing Gull Foundation: <https://laughinggull.org/about-us/>

Laughing Gull Foundation envisions a more equitable, just, and sustainable world. As a supportive partner, we are committed and intentional, and never take our eyes off the horizon. Founded in 2012 as a progressive family foundation rooted in the South and committed to justice, Laughing Gull Foundation ensures frontline leaders have the funding, resources, and support needed to build power and make change. Focus areas: climate and environment, LGBTQ+Equality, Higher education in prison.

NC Campus Engagement: <https://nccampusengagement.org/>

North Carolina Campus Engagement is a collaborative network of colleges and universities committed to: Educating students for civic and social responsibility, partnering with communities for positive change, and strengthening democracy

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Appalachian Regional Commission: <https://www.arc.gov/grants-and-opportunities/>
ARC uses Congressionally appropriated funds to invest in the Region's economic and community development through grants. As part of our unique federal-state partnership, ARC's grant application process begins at the state government level. All ARC grants align with the investment priorities outlined in our current Strategic Plan and reflect state plans and strategies.

Dogwood Health Trust: <https://dogwoodhealthtrust.org/>
Dogwood Health Trust wants to help create a Western North Carolina where every generation can live, learn, earn and thrive, with dignity and opportunity for all – no exceptions. To do this, we focus a large portion of our community investments on creating equitable outcomes within four key strategic priorities (housing, education, economic opportunity, health and wellness) that intertwine to significantly influence overall wellbeing.

Draper Richards Kaplan: <https://www.drkfoundation.org/apply-for-funding/what-we-fund/>
DRK Foundation funds early-stage social impact organizations solving the world's biggest social and environmental problems using bold, scalable approaches.

Duke Energy Foundation: <https://www.duke-energy.com/community/duke-energy-foundation/funding-guidelines>
Each year, the Duke Energy Foundation will decide if there are additional grant opportunities available through a request for proposals process (RFP). If available, these opportunities will be announced via news release and via email to previous grantees. The majority of Duke Energy Foundation grants awarded are less than $20,000. If you have a project that warrants additional consideration, please work through your Duke Energy Foundation contact. Duke Energy funds work in North Carolina within the areas of vibrant communities, climate resiliency, and justice, equity, and inclusion.

Golden Leaf Foundation: <https://goldenleaf.org/welcome/>
Golden LEAF's mission is to increase economic opportunity in North Carolina's rural and tobacco-dependent communities through leadership in grantmaking, collaboration, innovation, and stewardship as an independent and perpetual foundation.

Lowe's Foundation Gable Grants Program: <https://corporate.lowes.com/our-responsibilities/lowes-foundation>
The Gable Grants Program is a $50 million initiative designed to support community and technical colleges and community-based nonprofit organizations in training 50,000 skilled trades professionals over five years. This funding helps recruit, train, and prepare individuals for careers in appliance repair, carpentry/construction, electrical work, HVAC, and plumbing. Eligible applicants must currently offer sustainable and scalable skilled trades education programs for postsecondary-aged adults and actively recruit and support women, people of color, individuals in rural areas, or justice-involved individuals participating in second-chance programs.

NC Idea: <https://ncidea.org/about/>

NC IDEA is an independent private, 501(c)(3) foundation whose vision is to help North Carolinians achieve their entrepreneurial ambition to start and grow high potential companies. NC IDEA fosters sustainable economic development with competitive grants and programs for entrepreneurs and funding to strengthen the North Carolina entrepreneurial ecosystem. NC IDEA offers grant funding and support on the principles of diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI).

North Carolina Business Committee for Education (NCBCE):

:https://ncbce.org/initiatives/

Since 1983, we have provided a critical link between North Carolina business leaders and the state's education decision makers, helping to create connections between the education curriculum and the overall work readiness of citizens across the state.

Truist Foundation Grant: <https://www.truist.com/purpose/truist-foundation/grant-application>

We support our communities by investing in innovative nonprofits that align with our key areas of focus: building career pathways to economic mobility and strengthening small businesses.

USDA Rural Development: <https://www.rd.usda.gov/>

We offer loans, grants and loan guarantees to help create jobs and support economic development and essential services such as housing; health care; first responder services and equipment; and water, electric and communications infrastructure. Assisting rural communities to recover economically through more and better market opportunities through improved infrastructure.

US Department of Labor: <https://www.dol.gov/grants>

Labor Grants: Empowering and expanding equitable opportunities for all workers. Our grants connect, protect, train, support and empower workers and job seekers, at home and abroad.

US Economic Development Administration: <https://www.eda.gov/>

The U.S. Economic Development Administration's investment policy is designed to establish a foundation for sustainable job growth and the building of durable regional economies throughout the United States.

Waste Management: Charitable Contributions: <https://www.wm.com/us/en/inside-wm/social-impact/community-impact>

The Waste Management Charitable Contribution program provides funding to 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations and public organizations that use donations exclusively for public purposes. Funding supports initiatives in six key areas: environmental stewardship, environmental justice, sustainability education, workforce and skills development, community vitality, and supplier diversity.

EDUCATION

ECMC Foundation: <https://www.ecmcfoundation.org/what-we-do/strategic-framework>

We make grants and investments that fit within one of our three strategic priorities, and we are particularly interested in those proposals that focus on implementing systemic reforms to improve postsecondary outcomes for students from underserved backgrounds. 1. Removing barriers to postsecondary completion: 2. Building the capacity of organizations, systems and institutions. 3. We strengthen the capacity of higher education institutions, systems, and other support and service organizations to improve outcomes for today's learners and evolve to meet the changing needs of learners. We support large-scale, cross-sector collaborations and innovations that have the potential to transform the postsecondary ecosystem in service of more equitable outcomes for the learners of today and tomorrow. Currently, ECMS has the following initiatives: Rural Impact Initiative and a Career, Technical Education Leadership Initiative, Transfer and Credit Mobility Initiative, Men of Color Initiative, Basic Needs, and Single Mother Student Success Initiative.

Glass Foundation, Inc.: <https://www.glassfoundation.org/apply>

The Foundation strives to help Western North Carolina thrive as a whole community educationally, environmentally, and culturally and offer a distinctive quality of life. We have two areas of interest:

(1) Environmental education and preservation. (2) Developmental and educational opportunities for children and teens.

John M. Belk Endowment: <https://jimbendowment.org/how-we-work>

In 2014, the John M. Belk Endowment began allocating resources toward eliminating barriers to postsecondary education for underrepresented students across North Carolina by focusing on Access, Completion and Workforce Relevance. Based on research, we define underrepresented populations as groups where there is a clearly demonstrable gap in educational attainment. These include, but are not limited to, low-income, rural, first-generation, minority students and military veterans.

Kentucky Fried Wishes: <https://kfcfoundation.org/wishes/#guidelines>

One of their initiatives is "Empowering through Education and Training" and they fund: Community-wide CPR certification, library afterschool literacy program, equipment and curriculum for job skills training for adults with disabilities, and wildlife conservation exhibit creation. Non-profit organizations can apply for a $10,000 grant to fund a capacity-building project on their wish list. There are three application windows in 2025. The KFC Foundation will award up to 20 grants per cycle.

Leon Levine Foundation: <https://www.leonlevinefoundation.org/strategy/>

Ensuring youth from historically marginalized communities and low-income families are prepared, supported and motivated to learn by providing access to the resources required for academic achievement, post-secondary attainment and life-long success.

Mebane Foundation: <https://www.mebanefoundation.com/guiding-principles/>

The Foundation will use its assets to promote collaborations and partnerships among educational professionals (public and private), business leaders, elected officials, and the community at large, focused on ensuring that all children have the opportunity to reach their highest potential in school, in career, and in life. The Foundation – as a catalyst for educational innovation and improvement, not a permanent source of funding – will require its education, business, government, and community partners to develop models with long-term, independent sustainability.

New Schools: <https://www.newschools.org/apply-for-funding/>

Our new strategy builds on what works in education and funds new solutions to help students succeed in school and in life. We support early-stage organizations and new initiatives within existing organizations that work to improve outcomes for all students, particularly those furthest from opportunity — including students of color, those experiencing poverty, and those with learning differences.

North Carolina Community Foundation Scholarships:

<https://www.nccommunityfoundation.org/scholarships/how-to-apply>

Undergraduates, graduates, medical and professional school students and adult re-entry students who are attending community colleges, four-year universities, career/technical schools, teaching credential programs and graduate, medical or professional schools in the United States are eligible for scholarships offered at NCCF. Depending on the scholarship, it may pay for tuition, room and board, books, fees and/or other related educational expenses. This will be outlined in your award notification.

North Carolina Department of Public Instruction: <https://www.dpi.nc.gov/districts-schools/funding-opportunities>

A collection of available funding opportunities and grants. Please see their associated pages for more information.

Spencer Foundation: <https://www.spencer.org/why-we-grant>

Our programs provide funding for education-focused research projects, research training fellowships, and additional field-building initiatives. Throughout each of our programs, we maintain broad ideas about the questions educational research might ask, the theories it might employ, the methods and approaches it might use, and the ways in which we might support it.

Society for Research in Child Development: <https://www.srkd.org/programs-and-funding>

SRCD offers a number of rich programs and funding opportunities for professional development whether you are just beginning to explore a career related to developmental science or are a leading scholar in the field.

The Transformational Partnership Fund: <https://www.higheredpartnerships.org/>

The Transformational Partnerships Fund (TPF) supports colleges and universities interested in exploring partnerships that could fundamentally improve how they operate and serve students — especially students of color, students from low-income families, and other underserved populations.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

American Association of Colleges of Nursing: <https://www.aacnnursing.org/news-data/all-news/category/funding-opportunities>

As the collective voice for academic nursing, AACN serves as the catalyst for excellence and innovation in nursing education, research, and practice.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina:

<https://www.bcbsncfoundation.org/overview-and-opportunities/>

Grants are investments – in organizations, in people, in health. We value and strive to support initiatives and investments that reflect the voices, perspectives, and lived experiences of the people and communities in North Carolina faced with significant barriers to good health. We invite applications based on specific strategic objectives or announce broader opportunities to apply for funding. Our grants can range in size from targeted small dollar amounts to large, multi-year partnerships. Grantmaking supports: Access to care, early childhood, healthy communities, healthy food, oral health)

The Bob Woodruff Foundation: <https://bobwoodrufffoundation.org/grants/>

We fund programs and services that serve the military and veteran community. We focus on programs that improve the health and wellbeing of service members, veterans, their families, and caregivers.

Burrough's Wellcome Fund: <https://www.bwfund.org/>

CareQuest Institute for Oral Health: <https://www.carequest.org/grantmaking>

We address complex and upstream drivers of oral health disparities by investing strategically and providing collaborative, capacity-building support that leads to healthier communities. The funding focuses on four key areas: policy and advocacy, care delivery, community capacity, and research.

Charlies Heart Foundation: <https://charliesheartfoundation.org/>

Charlie's Heart Foundation is committed to supporting small nonprofits aligned with our mission that are doing great work! Our grant program seeks to fund innovative, holistic programs that promote the mental well-being of families in underserved and under-resourced communities.

Commonwealth Fund: <https://www.commonwealthfund.org/grants>

Today, the mission of the Commonwealth Fund is to promote a high-performing, equitable health care system that achieves better access, improved quality, and greater efficiency, particularly for society's most vulnerable, including people of color, people with low income, and those who are uninsured.

Constellation Quality Health Foundation:

<https://constellationqualityhealth.org/foundation/>

The CCME Foundation works to improve the health of individuals and communities. We provide charitable grants to nonprofit organizations to build upon or undertake new projects that improve access to health care and health-related services for our neighbors in the Carolinas. Funding is prioritized on a project's potential to impact the community using measurable outcomes. We welcome all eligible applicants, especially community-based organizations in earlier stages of development.

Delta Dental Foundation: <https://www.deltadental.foundation/general-grant-requests>

Grants for Oral Health, Access, Advocacy, Education, and Workforce Development. The DDF funds the people and programs that promote oral health equity and align with the five core pillars outlined in our strategic plan. We are especially interested in proposals that promote oral health equity for people with disabilities.

Great Smokies Health Foundation: <https://www.greatsmokieshealthfoundation.com/>

The mission of the Great Smokies Health Foundation is to improve the health status of the residents of Jackson, Swain, Macon, and Graham counties through investment and collaboration focused on health, wellness, and prevention. The Foundation is governed by a local board with representatives from the communities being served.

Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA): <https://www.hrsa.gov/grants>

We award grants for ideas and projects that benefit the public. Our grants help solve critical needs in their community. Examples include: Expanding the health workforce; increasing access to affordable and quality health care; more options for telehealth; HIV medical care, medications, and support services.

Hearst Foundation Health Grants: <https://www.hearstfdn.org/health/funding-priorities>

The Hearst Foundations assist leading regional hospitals, medical centers and specialized medical institutions providing access to healthcare for high-need populations. In response to the shortage of healthcare professionals necessary to meet the country's evolving healthcare demands, the Foundations also fund programs designed to enhance skills and increase the number of practitioners and educators across roles in healthcare.
