MEET THE Don Tomas Health Sciences Center

During a recent meeting, Southwestern Community College's Board of Trustees unanimously agreed to name the new Health Sciences Center in honor of Dr. Don Tomas – SCC's President.

The 55,000-square-foot facility will be officially named the Don Tomas Health Sciences Center. New signage is in process and will be installed this fall.

Completed in the summer of 2021, the Don Tomas Health Sciences Center houses 10 of Southwestern's 16 Health Sciences programs. Five of the remaining programs now enjoy expanded space in the Balsam Center. And Therapeutic Massage has its own dedicated lab and classroom in Founders Hall.

The new construction allowed SCC to add Surgical Technology and Opticianry as career pathways. Southwestern also plans to add Dental Assisting in the Fall of 2023.

"I am especially proud to name the building in honor of Dr. Tomas because he's done so much for Southwestern and the communities we serve," said Vance Davidson, Vice Chair of SCC's Board of Trustees. "Under his leadership, SCC has been ranked multiple times among the Top 10 community colleges in the country – and we were a semifinalist for the prestigious Aspen Prize this year.

"And Dr. Tomas' emphasis on the SCC Foundation has helped us create a culture of philanthropy that's put higher education within reach for hundreds of students who would otherwise be unable to obtain a college degree," Davidson added.

When Dr. Tomas became SCC's president in 2011, only a couple dozen students received financial assistance through the SCC Foundation. During the current academic year, 187 students received a total of $210,000 in scholarship support.

Shortly after arriving at Southwestern, Dr. Tomas helped launch the Student Success Campaign – an effort that ultimately yielded the first million-dollar endowment in school history.

The college's annual fundraising gala has raised more than $530,000 since the inaugural event in 2015. All proceeds support students who might otherwise not be able to afford tuition and fees.

BLUEGRASS, BLUE JEANS & BLING 2022 ANNUAL GALA

Fundraiser to support student scholarships

The SCC Gala raises a record $122,913.

For the last two years, Southwestern Community College's Boots, Blue Jeans and Bling gala had to be canceled due to the pandemic. This year, however, the gala was able to come back – and this time bigger than ever before.

On Saturday, Sept. 24, more than 425 guests flooded the new ballroom at Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort as the annual event sold out for the first time. The event raised a record $122,913 before an anonymous guest committed an additional $10,000 for an annual scholarship.

"Every year, I am humbled to see the generosity and passion people in our area have for providing our students a hand up," said Dr. Don Tomas, SCC's President. "Even during the years we couldn't have the gala in person, we still raised almost $100,000 annually. On behalf of our students, I am extremely thankful to everyone who supports- and helps organize- this wonderful event."

The gala was buzzing with excitement as various performers and presenters took the stage.

Dr. Tomas recognized distinguished guests and thanked the crowd for its support. During his remarks, Dr. Tomas bestowed the inaugural SCC IMPACT Award on Brooks Robinson, Regional Senior Vice President and General Manager for Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort.

"Brooks Robinson and his team at Harrah's have demonstrated an unprecedented level of generous and sustained support of SCC and the community," Dr. Tomas said. "We are extremely grateful for everything they do to benefit our students."

Two scholarship recipients, Elizabeth Cartwright and Logan Walker, closed out the program by telling their stories about how receiving scholarships changed their lives for the better.

Milestone now taking submissions

Submissions are now being taken for the 2023 edition of the Milestone, the biennial art and literary review published by Southwestern Community College.

Milestone showcases the creative expressions of local writers and visual artists. The periodical is representative of the abundance of talent in the region and seeks to foster creative potential by providing artists an opportunity to gain public awareness.

All residents of Jackson, Macon and Swain counties and the Qualla Boundary, as well as SCC students and alumni, are eligible. Only unpublished work may be submitted. Prose should not exceed 2,000 words, and poems should be limited to two pages in length. Writers may submit more than one work. All writing must be double-spaced and submitted in paper format or via email. In addition, each page must be numbered, and the author's name, address, telephone number and email address should be included on the last page of each submission.

Visual artists and photographers may submit only black and white copies of original artwork and must also include name, address, telephone number, email address, title of work and photo caption (if applicable) on the back of each submission. Artists and photographers may also submit more than one work.

First- and second-place prizes will be awarded in three categories: poetry, prose (short story or nonfiction works) and visual arts, including photography. In addition, one cash prize will be awarded for cover art.

Literary submissions must be postmarked by Dec. 8, 2022, and sent to SCC Milestone, Attn. Hannah Sykes; 447 College Drive; Sylva, NC 28779 or via email to milestone@southwesterncc.edu. Submissions in visual art must be postmarked by the same date and sent to the same address, Attn. Bob Keeling or via email to bkeeling@southwesterncc.edu.

For more information, contact Sykes at 828.339.4463 or h\_sykes@southwesterncc.edu.
